

were given to different members and were ably discussed, and we hope to have these conferences continue, as they are a great benefit to us. We have also taken up the Home Department Work and as we are inexperienced we need your prayers that we may thru this work encourage the study of the Bible. Sister R E Darling has been elected superintendent of this branch of work.

For our C. E. we can say we are doing what we can and have taken steps to put us on a better footing.

Our Missionary Circle meets regularly and we are reading the series of books. Some time ago the circle distributed nickels among its members to be increased in their own individual ways. From this we realized $5 20. This may seem like a small amount, but the circle consists of but few members so we feel encouraged over it.

Every branch of work promises well for the winter. Brethren pray for us that before very long we may be able to say we have a Brethren church in Pittsburgh for which we are not in debt.

"Sunny Kansas" is beautiful. But God's sunshine in the soul is most beautiful.

The great thing for earth's nations to do is to get right with God.

A great and wise being who received his wisdom direct from God said, "Righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people."

"The wisdom of the world is foolishness with God," but only in a comparative sense, in comparison with God's wisdom.

Brother and sister when you have done all the good possible for you to do in this life leave it all upon the altar of forgetfulness and mightily plead for the exercise of God's mercy in your behalf.

Now for more, greater and sweeter rest in Jesus and less politics for the winter. The early church fathers, the great and noble protestant reformers, the great learned, eloquent, cultured and pious modern preachers are all worthy authority and entitled to respectful recognition, but Jesus Christ is more so, being divinely perfect.

I fear too many of us lack in appreciation of that vital poetic sentiment, "To hate the sin with all my heart and yet the sinner love."

When Jesus comes again "without sin unto salvation," then the groanings of earth will be heard and the hope of earth will be realized.

Educational

Education of Women

The World

If we are to have a race of enlightened, noble and brave men, we must give to woman the best education it is possible for her to receive. She has the same right as man to become all that she may be, to know whatever may be known, to do whatever is fair and just and good. In souls there is no sex. If we leave half the race in ignorance, how shall we hope to lift the other half into the light of truth and love? Let woman's mental power increase, let her influence grow, and more and more she will stand by the side of man as a helper in all his struggle to make the will of God prevail. From the time the Virgin Mother held the Infant Savior in her arms to this hour, woman has been the great lover of Christ and the unwearying helper of His little ones; and the more we strengthen and illumine her, the more we add to her sublime faith and devotion the power of knowledge and culture, the more efficiently shall she work to purify life, to make justice, temperance, chastity, and love prevail. She is more unselfish, more capable of enthusiasm for spiritual ends, she has more sympathy with what is beautiful, noble and godlike than man; and the more her knowledge increases, the more shall she become a heavenly force to help spread God's kingdom on earth. Doubtless our failure to win the hearts of all men is due in no slight degree to our indifference to the education of woman.

The First Year Out of College

Fred L. Kriebel, in October Success.

It may be hard for the man of liberal ideas, broad views, and cultured intellect to be tied down to the routine duties of an entry clerk, messenger boy, or some other subordinate position, but he cannot escape. If his ambition is to be a banker, he must begin at the foot of the ladder.

Does he desire to be a journalist? He cannot commence as an editor, even if he has held that dignified position on a college paper. Does he fancy the life of a merchant? He cannot start as the manager of a china department of a large store. He must start just about where he would have been obliged to start if he had no college education. Let him know at once what he must learn sooner or later—that the college man, like any one else, must become master of his calling before he can command a good position and a large salary. If he is satisfied to begin low, and thoroughly learn all the details of the business he desires to follow, the college man will make more rapid progress and get larger enjoyment out of life because of his superior education.

College Notes

Only five more weeks in this term. How time flies! To the busy student and teacher spare time is a luxury which is much appreciated.

Our numbers are gradually increasing and the general interest thru-out the school is encouraging. We have students here who will make themselves felt in future years.

The Young People's meeting was led Sunday evening by Brother Holsinger. The topic was intemperance and many good thoughts were presented.

President Miller spent Sunday at Berne, Indiana, where he dedicated their new church.

Brother A. D. Gnagey occupied the college pulpit Sunday morning.

Prof. W. D. Furry preached at Louisville Sunday.

Brother A. H. Lichty preached at the U. B. church Sunday morning and evening.

Now is the time to begin thinking about where you will attend school after Christmas. Why not come to Ashland and be with us during the winter term? You will have plenty of company. The prospects for a large attendance are better than they have ever been.

Brethren, do you love the church and her institutions? Do you want to know more about what we are doing at the College and do you want to see her prosper? If you do, send twenty five cents at once for a year's subscription to the new monthly College paper we are preparing to publish. The first issue will be mailed the last of this month, so send at once if you want a copy of the first issue. If you will secure a club of ten we will allow you a commission of ten cents on each subscription. Here is a chance for some bright boy or girl to earn a dollar and at the same time benefit his neighbors and the College. This paper will be instructive and entertaining and worth much more than the subscription price. Lend us a hand and help make it a success for the school and the church. Address all communications and make all money orders for subscriptions payable to C. Orville Witter who is the business manager. If you will raise a club, send at once for subscription blank and begin work.

Our Dead

VAIL.—Jeremiah Vail was born Jan. 17, 1853, died at his home near Syracuse, Ind., Nov. 10 1900. Brother Vail surrendered all to Jesus two years this winter while we were conducting a revival meeting in Syracuse and was received into the church with his wife and daughter. Soon after he was chosen deacon and lived a devoted Christian to the time when Jesus called him home. Thus the church has lost a good man, his wife a devoted husband, and his children a kind father. Funeral by the writer from I Cor. 15:34 58.

The Light of the World, or Our Savior in Art.

Cost nearly $100,000 to produce. Contains nearly 100 full-page engravings of our Savior and His Mother by the world's greatest painters. True copies of the greatest masterpieces in the art galleries of Europe. Every picture is as beautiful as a sunrise over the hilltops. Contains description of the paintings, biography of the painters, the names and locations of the galleries in Europe where the originals may be seen. Also contains a Child's Department, including a Child's Story of the Christ and His Mother, beautifully written, to fit each picture. This wonderful book, matchless in its purity and beauty, appeals to every mother's heart, and in every Christian home where there are children the book sells itself. Christian men and women are making money rapidly taking orders. A Christian man or woman can in this community soon make $1,000 taking orders for Christmas presents. Mrs. Waite, our agent in Massachusetts, has sold over $3,000 worth of the books in a very short time. Mrs. Sackett, our agent in New York, has sold over $1,500 worth of the books in a very short time. The book is printed on velvet-finished paper, beautifully bound in Cardinal Red and Gold, and adorned with Golden Roses and Lilies. It is, without doubt, the most beautiful book of this century. Write for terms quickly and get the management of that territory. You can work on salary or commission, and when you prove your success we will promote you to the position of Manager and Correspondent, at a permanent salary, to devote your time to attending to agents and the correspondence. Wanted also a State Manager to have charge of office in Leading City of the State and manage all the business of the State. Send for terms. Address—
